

MEMBERSHIP CATEGORIES

Regular: (18 & over): Entitled to attend all chapter functions with a guest, priority and special discounts on special activities and club merchandise, voting privileges, hold elected office, access to library and reference materials, receive Chapter newsletter, name tag and other charter recognition items.

Family: Same benefits as Regular Membership for member, member's spouse and dependents under age 18 living at home including full voting privileges for member's spouse. Dependent children are not entitled voting privileges or eligible to hold elected office.

Senior (65 & over): Same benefits as Regular Membership.

Life shall have paid predetermined advance dues and are granted Regular Membership privileges for the rest of their lives.

Youth (14 to 17): Same benefits as Regular Membership except: voting privileges and holding elected office or leadership position.

Note: Regular, Family, Senior, and Life chapter membership requires membership in EAA, which is separate and in addition to Chapter Membership. Youth membership does not require EAA membership. Family requires only one adult member to be a member of EAA. EAA membership information and applications are available at www.eaa.org or at the Chapter 838 Building.

Do you have questions?

Call Dave Finstad 262-308-3216
Membership Chairman

Modified 1 Jan 2015

EAA CHAPTER 838

3333 North Green Bay Road
Racine, Wisconsin 53404

• Membership Application •

